DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This International style residence is 2-stories high and faced in common bond brick painted white and accented by metal casement windows underlined by brick stretcher sills.

The asymmetrically-placed entrance is offset by a mid-story, rectangular window with 11 rows of 6 glass blocks.

Two brick steps lead to the recessed entrance. The doorway is enframed by a wide metal architrave painted black with the address written in script above the entry. Above this is a small, rectangular porch light. The end bays each carry bipartite small casement windows with 1/1 lights. These windows are accented by brick sills.

Above these windows, on the 2nd floor, are double casement windows flanked by sidelights; all have 3 vertical lights. This group is mounted by six horizontal glass panes and underlined by brick stretcher sills.

Two string courses of brick headers above the 2nd floor windows accentuate the flat roof.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Houses in the International Style came into popularity in the United States in the late nineteen twenties and early thirties. The typical residence was painted white and balanced by unlike parts. The metal casement windows are a 1930's conceit.

A few such houses remain in Baltimore. To the east, on North Charles Street above Northern Parkway is a similar residence. Two duplex groupings are nearby on Bellona Avenue just below Belvedere Avenue.
